

At Shrewsbury Academy, our House system is an integral part of every school day. We have three houses, each with their own House Captains, Deputies and House Coordinators. These pupils are the face of each house and have very important roles to enthuse and motivate pupils within their house. They are the building blocks to our House System.

Students and staff were asked for their input regarding the names of Shrewsbury Academy's three houses. These were based off famous people of a variety of subjects with one anomaly.

Our three Houses are:

Attenborough: David Attenborough

'Integrity'

A British broadcaster, biologist, natural historian, and author. David Attenborough has devoted his life to documenting the love story between humans and nature. His dedication to research, documentation, and advocacy for the protection of nature and its restoration shows his admiration and resilience to the cause.

Mazan: Philip Mazan

'Empathy'

A student who was full of life. He inspired those around him and worked hard to ensure he did not fall behind in school all whilst battling cancer for many years. Philip had the ability to make everyone smile with his jokes and inspired both staff and students. Philip will always be remembered and we at Shrewsbury Academy will continue to celebrate his life.

Watson: Emma Watson

'Creativity'

Emma Watson is a British actress, activist, and model. She is a strong advocate for women's rights and is deeply involved in promoting girls' education. From a hero in the Harry Potter films, to a hero for gender equality, it is undeniable that Emma Watson is a visionary leader of our generation.

Every pupil and member of staff is placed in one of the Houses when they join Shrewsbury Academy. By being a member of the House family, pupils and staff are encouraged to show team spirit.

At the very heart of the House System is our trust vision 'Achievement through Caring'.

We want to build a family feel community where students are proud to be a part of their house system and Shrewsbury Academy.

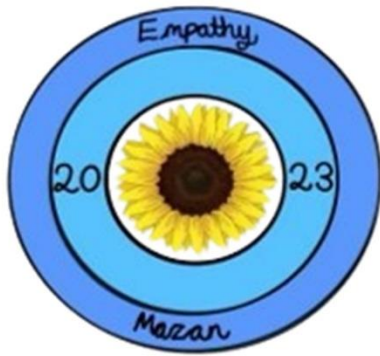

Each pupil will be given a House badge that represents the House they are in. There will be an opportunity for students to upgrade their badges to metal ones during the Academic year based on rewards and achievements.

Throughout the academic year pupils will have a chance to enter house competitions from all areas across school. This ensures that everyone has an opportunity to represent their house in something that they enjoy or are good at. For example, house events include sporting activities, art competitions, cookery contests and several other activities that are both individual and grouped as well as within form groups. Staff lead by example and also take part in exactly the same events.

All pupils have the opportunity to earn House points for their House; House Points are at the heart of our rewards system. Points are awarded for things such as good work, contribution to lessons, community spirit and participation in House competitions. Pupils can also gain valuable House points every week for doing the right thing or going the extra mile.

Our yearly Sports Day also contributes to the running total for House points and at the end of the academic year all House points are added up and one House wins the overall shield.
